Neck and Shoulder Release

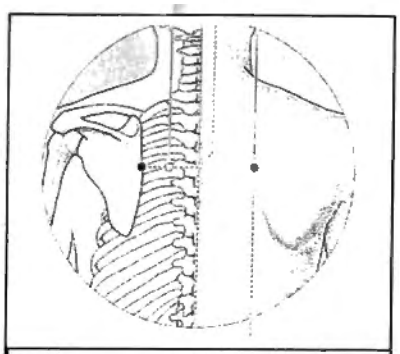

Bilaterally, hold the following points:

1

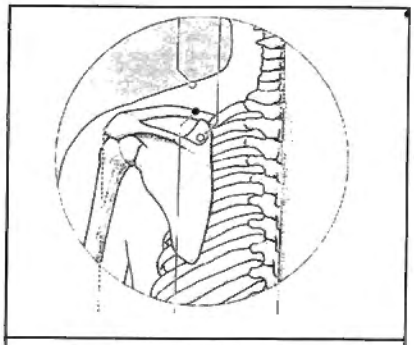

SI 10

2

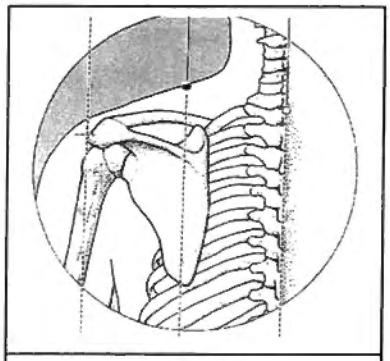

P Shu

3

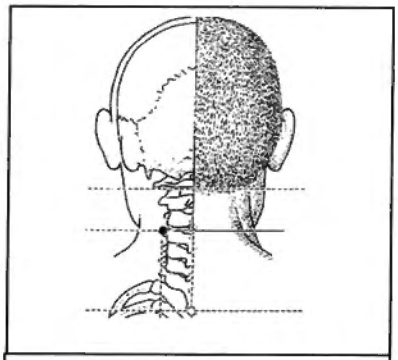

TW 15

4

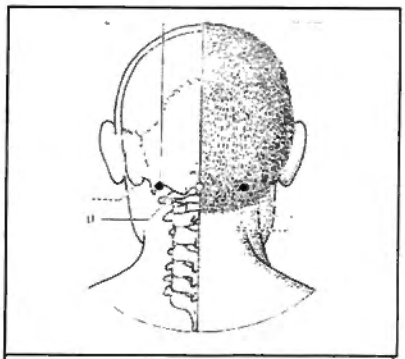

GB 21

5

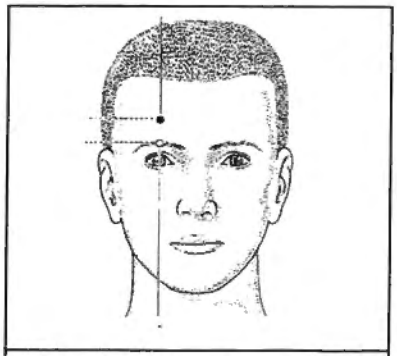

GB Extra

6

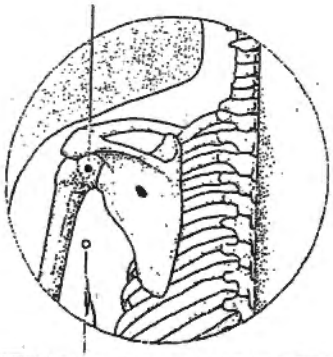

GB 20

7

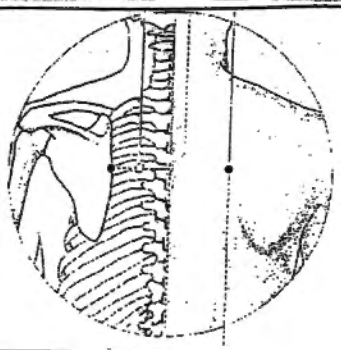

GB 14

SI 10 – Scapula's Hollow

Location: On the posterior shoulder, 2 finger widths inferior from the acromion process, in the glenohumeral joint.

Indications: Shoulder, scapula and neck pain or arthritis, arm weakness, hypertension, rotator cuff injuries, stress.

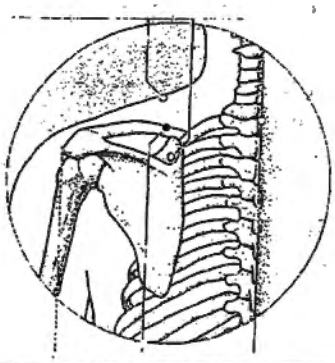

P Shu – Vital Region Shu

Location: Between spinous processes of T4 – T5, or level with the midpoint of the medial border of the scapula.

Action: Calms the Shen (Spirit); tonifies Yin.

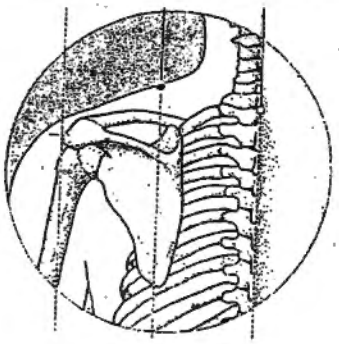

Indications: Back and shoulder pain.

TW 15 – Heavenly Bone

Location: At the insertion of the levator scapula onto the medial superior border of the scapula.

Indications: Conditions that get worse due to weather; stiff neck, muscular tension, shoulder pain, temperature regulation, hypertension and Wei Qi (immune system).

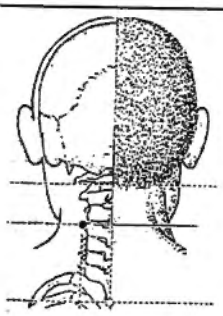

GB 21 – Shoulder Well

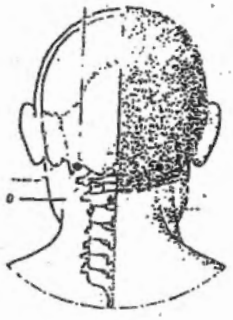

Location: Midway between C7 and the acromion process, at the highest point of the upper trapezius.

Indications: Pain and stiffness of neck, shoulder and upper back; inability to raise the arm, breast pain and abscess; hyperthyroidism. Difficult or prolonged labor.

Hold Gently during Pregnancy

GB Extra

GB 20 – Wind Pond

Location: Midway between the tip of the mastoid process and the midline, in the hollow between the SCM and upper trapezius.

Indications: Tension headache, pain and stiffness in the neck, shoulders and upper back; migraine, hypertension, tinnitus,, common cold; loss of memory, loss of speech, pain or redness of the eyes, nose bleed.

GB 14